

EXHIBIT OPPORTUNITY

The Children's Forum invites you to participate as an exhibitor at our upcoming Survive the Summer 2008 training event in Miami on May 10, 2008. This staff training will draw over 450 summer camp providers from the South Florida area and will be the only Survive the Summer 2008 training (of our 3 regional locations) to include exhibitors! Exhibits will be open from 7:30am – Noon. Attendees will have allocated time to visit exhibits during morning registration and during a dedicated Exhibit Break, mid-morning.

In an effort to provide more quality, age-appropriate materials to summer camp programs, our registration structure includes a small exhibit fee, with an additional request for product donation as door prizes.

Exhibitors are asked to display products developmentally appropriate for children of all grades K-12.

Please complete the Exhibit Application on the reverse side and return by April 4, 2008. Applications received by this deadline will ensure your company name appears in the final training program, as well as on the Exhibit B-I-N-G-O card.
